

OneBeacon Management Liability Social Engineering Fraud Coverage

OneBeacon Management Liability® means access to risk assessment expertise and tailored products,* all delivered through our dedicated team of management liability specialists. What's more, as a member of OneBeacon Insurance Group®, our solutions are backed by OneBeacon's financial strength.

Fraudsters can come disguised as a key client. Or your most trusted vendor partner. Or even as a member of your company's management team. What do they have in common? The desire to gain access to your organization's assets. And, the ability to make them disappear. Their approaches may vary, but their intentions are the same. Gain the confidence of one of your employees, and deceive them into making what appears to be a legitimate financial transaction. Then, take the money and vanish without a trace.

Social engineering fraud represents a challenge for any business. And for all businesses.

Information is shared every day. Whether by phone, email, message or fax, that information represents an opportunity for social engineering fraud. When employees are misled or deceived by someone posing as a legitimate business associate, the results can be devastating. This is why OneBeacon Management Liability is now offering a social engineering fraud endorsement to the crime coverage section. The endorsement offers protection when a business is not aware of, and not an active participant in, a social engineering fraud scheme. Because even a company's best efforts might not be enough to prevent a fraudster from gaining access, and taking action.

Social Engineering Fraud Coverage*

- Offered as an endorsement to the crime coverage section on all OneBeacon Management Liability policy forms upon completion of a supplemental application.
- Up to $250,000 per occurrence limits.
- Extends to social engineering fraud perpetrated by perceived vendors, employees and clients.
- Covers many methods of deception, including email, text, instant message, telephone, fax and other electronic means.

Eligible Risks

Businesses or organizations that are eligible under any of the OneBeacon Management Liability policy forms:

- Healthcare organizations
- Private companies
- Not-for-profit organizations

How Does Social Engineering Fraud Happen?

Social engineering fraud occurs when there is impersonation of a vendor, a client, a customer or an executive. The recipient of the communication is led to believe that the communication is legitimate, and follows through on the transaction instructions. However, the transaction has been rerouted. It is only after the payments or goods are not received by the intended recipient that the fraud is discovered. By then, it is too late, and the fraudster — along with the stolen assets — is long gone.

In Addition

Our comprehensive management liability program* offers a modular policy with coverage options that include directors, officers and organization liability insurance (D&O), employment practices liability insurance (EPL), fiduciary liability insurance, and crime insurance, with the available social engineering endorsement.
